"Jubilant... What keeps the show alive is its delight in simple storytelling, the bounce of Tim Rice's lyrics and the merry eclecticism of Andrew Lloyd Webber's score, which embraces country and western, calypso, French chanson and Elvis-style rock... There is wit in Lloyd Webber's willingness to try different styles and in Rice's verbal dexterity."

CAT'S-PAW

September 22 — October 22, 2023

Written by William Mastrosimone

Directed by William Roudebush

Regional Premiere

Produced by special arrangement with Concord Theatricals

In this tight drama, with intel that sounds like a Tom Clancy novel, an unusual terrorist (who is brilliant...and right) is the head of a group responsible for a bomb attack at the White House. When a reporter asks if he feels any guilt about the death of innocent people, he replies that hundreds of innocent people die every hour because of what mankind is doing to its water supply and do the people responsible feel guilt for this? The cat and mouse game between the young reporter and the terrorist leads to a shocking and violent conclusion.

JITNEY

Written by August Wilson

Directed by Jimmie Woody

Written in 1979, first produced in 1982, it was set, and produced in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. When Wilson took his mother to see that production they arrived by jitney. This Drama Desk Award Winner in 2002, and Tony Award Winner for Best Revival of a Play in 2017, opens up the story of generations of jitney drivers and how they impacted their communities.

A DOLL'S HOUSE, PART 2

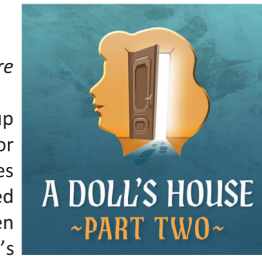

May 31— June 30, 2024

Written by Lucas Hnath

Directed by Don Carrier

Regional Premiere

Produced through special arrangement with Theatre Communications Group, Inc.

This Tony-Award winner of Best Play 2017, picks up fifteen years after Nora Helmer slammed the door on her stifling domestic life, but now a knock comes at that same door. It is Nora, and she has returned with an urgent request. What will her sudden return mean to those she left behind? Lucas Hnath's funny, probing, and bold play is both a continuation of Ibsen's complex exploration of traditional gender roles, as well as a sharp contemporary take on the struggles inherent in all human relationships across time.

"An incredibly enjoyable play...The true triumph of A Doll's House, Part 2 is its refreshingly feminist political message." —Christian Lewis, Huffington Post
