Session 2 July 22-August 9

9:30-11:30 am*

Performances: August 9 at 11:30 am & 6:00 pm

Our Junior Theater Camp is designed for all students, whether or not they have prior performance experience. Campers are broken into smaller groups based on age and work with theater professionals, learning about acting, singing, and dancing while rehearsing their own original show. Campers present this show – featuring acting scenes and musical numbers – twice for family and friends on the last day of camp in our Music & Dance Building Recital Hall. Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited.

There is a 30-minute informational orientation for parents and students on the first day of camp, including further information and materials regarding tickets and performances.

*Lunch-time supervision is provided for students enrolling in both the Junior Theater and Visual Arts Camps.

Improv Camp: Beck Improv Showcase (Ages 13-19)

June 10-21; Monday-Friday; 2 weeks; 5:30–8:30 pm; $205; Performances on June 21 & 22 at 7:30 pm

Headed by a founding member of Something Dada, Russ Stich, this camp is great for both new students of improv as well as veteran performers. Students explore the basic concepts of improvisational theater with an emphasis on the theatrical and audience–interactive aspects. This two–week workshop focuses on creating a completely improvised performance based on suggestions from a live audience. It’s a guaranteed comedy blast! Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to performances are $5 each.

Acting Camp: Step into the Spotlight (Ages 13-19)

July 1-19; Week 1 M-T-W-F; Weeks 2 & 3 Monday-Friday; 3 weeks; 1:00-5:00 pm; $365; Performances on July 19 & 20 at 7:30 pm;
No camp on July 4

This fun and lively theater camp, headed by Russ Stich, is for students who are interested in developing their performance skills. Focusing primarily on the comedic, students sharpen their stage abilities while rehearsing together as an ensemble to create a production that is sure to entertain. Come join us and laugh as you learn! Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited.

Musical Theater Camp: The Best of Broadway (Ages 13-19)

July 22-August 9; Monday-Friday; 3 weeks; 12:00-4:00 pm; $365; Performances on August 9 & 10 at 7:30 pm

This musical theater camp is for students who are serious and passionate about performing musical theater. Participants work with a director, musical director and choreographer as a dedicated team to pull together an original musical revue: The Best of Broadway. Songs and material are selected specifically for the students involved, creating a totally unique experience. If you love musicals, you’ll love this camp. Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited.

Placement Auditions: Thursday, July 20, 4:00-5:30 pm – Participants are encouraged to come to a preliminary audition so that we may determine appropriate material for the performance. Students are asked to prepare a short musical theater song that demonstrates their abilities. This is not mandatory for participation.

MUSIC

A Cappella Singing Camp (Ages 13-18)

Monday-Friday; 2 weeks; July 8-July 19; 1:00-4:00 pm; $300

Based on popular music arrangements by groups like Pentatonix, learn to sing in an a-cappella ensemble. Guided by Beck Center Voice Faculty, students will choose a selection of songs and choreograph their own small production. Bring these skills to your next vocal or stage experience. Students will present an informal performance on the final day of the camp at 3 pm.

Some experience singing in a choir or taking voice lessons is required.

VISUAL ARTS

Campers’ Art Exhibition on August 9 at 2 pm

Explore the wonderful world of visual arts! Learn about different mediums and techniques including painting, drawing, sculpture, printmaking, collage and clay. Participate in designing and creating a collaborative art work with fellow campers that will be displayed as part of the Beck Center Campers’ Art Exhibition at the end of the session. This camp is intensive in nature and divided into two distinct classes per day: one half of the time in our multimedia studio and the other half working in our pottery studio. Participants should wear clothing that can get dirty during the creation of art. The Campers’ Art Exhibition takes place on the final day of camp during the last half hour. Family and friends are invited to attend to help celebrate the art works made during camp. All art supplies provided.

*Lunch-time supervision is provided for students enrolling in both the Junior Theater and Visual Arts Camps.

Visual Arts Camp for Teens (Ages 13-18)

Monday-Friday; 2 weeks; July 8-July 19; 4:30-6:30 pm; 2 weeks; $210

Teen artists wishing to expand and deepen their understanding of arts experiences will want to join in this popular and intensive summer camp. Students of all skill levels will be engaged in the creative process through a variety of classic art mediums and techniques including painting, drawing, pottery making, printmaking, and more in a way they may not have time for during the school year. Because of the multi–media nature of this camp, there will be an emphasis on guiding teens to try new methods and embrace creativity! Artists should wear clothing that can get dirty during the creation of art. A Campers’ Art Exhibition takes place on the final day of camp. July 19 at 5:00 pm, family and friends are invited to attend. Art supplies provided.
