THEATER

Junior Theater (Ages 7-12) Our Junior Theater Camp is designed for all students, whether or not they have prior performance experience. Campers are broken into smaller groups based on age and work with theater professionals, learning about acting, singing, and dancing while rehearsing their own original show. Campers present this show - featuring acting scenes and musical numbers - twice for family and friends on the last day of camp, in our Music & Dance Building Recital Hall. Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to the performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited. There is a 30-minute informational orientation for parents and students on the first day of camp which includes additional information and materials regarding tickets and performances. Lunch-time supervision provided for students enrolling in both the Visual Arts and Junior Theater Camps.

Session 1 - #6895 3 weeks; Monday-Friday 12:30-2:30 PM; 6/10-6/28; $270; Multi at Beck Campus; Instructor: Staff TBA, Theater

Session 2 - #6896 3 weeks; Monday-Friday 9:30-11:30 AM; 7/22-8/9; $270; Multi at Beck Campus; Instructor: Staff TBA, Theater

Musical Theater (Ages 13-19) This musical theater camp is for students who are serious and passionate about performing musical theater. Participants work with a director, musical director and choreographer as a dedicated team to pull together an original musical revue: The Best of Broadway. Songs and material are selected specifically for the students involved creating a totally unique experience. If you love musicals, you'll love this camp. Students are asked to prepare a short musical theater audition song that demonstrates their abilities to be used within the first two days of camp. Audition pieces will help determine appropriate material for the performance for the camp. Performances on August 9 & 10 at 7:30 pm. Students MUST be available for BOTH performances to participate. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to the performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited.

#6899 3 weeks; Monday-Friday 12:00-4:00 PM; 7/22-8/9; $365; Multi at Beck Campus; Instructor: Staff, Theater

Acting (Ages 13-19) Step into the Spotlight! This fun and lively theater camp, headed by Russ Stich, is for students interested in developing their performance skills. Focusing primarily on the comedic, students sharpen their stage abilities while rehearsing together as an ensemble to create a production that is sure to entertain. Come join us and laugh as you learn! Performances are July 19 & 20 at 7:30 pm. Students must be available for both performances to participate. No camp July 4. Tuition does not include admission to performances. Tickets to the performances are $5 each. Performance seating is limited.

MUSIC

A Cappella Singing Camp (Ages 13-18) Based on popular music arrangements by groups like Pentatonix, learn to sing in an A-Capella ensemble. Guided by Beck Center Voice Faculty, students will choose a selection of songs and choreograph their own small production. Bring these skills to your next vocal or stage experience. Students present an informal performance on the final day of the camp at 3 pm. Some experience singing in a choir or taking voice lessons is required.

#6883 2 weeks; Monday-Friday 1:00-4:00 PM; 7/8-7/19; $300; Music & Dance Bldg 101; Instructor: Music Staff

VISUAL ARTS

Visual Arts (Ages 7-12) Explore the world of visual arts! Learn about different mediums and techniques including painting, drawing, sculpting, printmaking, collage, and clay. Participate in designing and creating a collaborative art work with fellow campers that will be displayed as part of the Beck Center Campers' Art Exhibition at the end of the session. This camp is intensive in nature and divided into two classes per day: one half of the time in our multimedia studio and the other half working in our pottery studio. Participants should wear clothing that can get dirty during the creation of art. The Campers' Art Exhibition takes place on the final day of camp during the last half hour. Family and friends are invited to attend to help celebrate the art works made during camp. All art supplies provided. Bring a snack. Lunch-time supervision provided for students enrolling in both the Visual Arts and Junior Theater Camps.

Session 2 - #6885 Monday-Friday 12:00-2:30 PM; 7/22-8/9; $335; Multi at Beck Campus; Instructor: Visual Arts Staff

Teen Visual Arts (Ages 13-18) Teen artists wishing to expand and deepen their understanding of arts experiences will want to join in this popular and intensive summer camp. Students of all skill levels will be engaged in the creative process through a variety of classic art mediums and techniques including painting, drawing, pottery making, printmaking, and more in a way they may not have time for during the school year. Because of the multi-media nature of this camp, there will be an emphasis on guiding teens to try new methods and embrace creativity! Artists should wear clothing that can get dirty during the creation of art. A Campers Art Exhibition takes place on the final day of camp. July 19 at 5:30 pm, family and friends are invited to attend. Art supplies provided.
